While recently trying to hoe down some dog fennel in our yard and meeting with very poor success Sam Jones' recipe for getting rid of that obnoxious weed recurred to our mind.
Mr. Jones once heard some farmers around Elbert or Hart counties, Georgia, complaining that dog fennel was "taking the country". "Well, fellows," said Mr. Jones, "I'll tell you how to get rid of the weed in a hurry: You just sprinkle corn whiskey over it and in less than a week the Baptists of Georgia will have it all eaten up." That plan may have worked in Georgia but of course Pickens county Baptists are different. So we went ahead and hoed down the weeds.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN

The death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Haynes May 15, 1922, at 7:30 p. m. and claimed for his victim Mrs. Harriet Frances Wright, mother of Mrs. Haynes. Mrs. Wright had been in bad health for sometime but it was not realized that the end was so near until about four weeks ago when she fell and broke her hip. She called her family to her bedside and told them she wanted them to meet her in a better world. She had been a member of Central Baptist church since girlhood and was a good christian woman. Before her marriage to Mr. Henry Wright she was Miss Harriet Whitton. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother and a dear neighbor. To know her was to love her. The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. B. C. Atkinson and the body was laid to rest in the West View cemetery. She is survived by her husband, five children, 30 grandchildren and 3 great grand children, two brothers, two sisters and a host of friends.

Truly a good woman has gone to her reward. One who knew her.

DEMOCRATS OF STATE RENEW ALLEGIANCE

Columbia, S. C., May 18.—The platform of the Democratic party of South Carolina, as adopted as a whole by the state convention Thursday morning at 3:40 o'clock, extols Woodrow Wilson, the "stricken leader" of the national party, and deals with a number of economic phases of the government of today.

Briefly stated, the platform carries the following planks or statements:

A renewed pledge of allegiance to the principles of Democracy as expressed in state and national platforms.

Particular interests in the welfare of the farmer.

A charge that the Republican party is owned by the big moneyed interests of the North and East.

Indorsement of the adjustment compensation bill now before congress.

Indorsement of the agricultural bloc.

A system of short term credits is favored and the extension of the war finance corporation is asked for.

Need of an income, luxuries and excise tax pointed out so that the lowest rate of taxation may be put upon the lands.

Strict enforcement of all laws and especially the prohibition law.

Liberally supported and economically administered public schools.

A welcome to the women of the state into politics.

Disapproval of all Sunday sessions of the legislature.

Disapproval of national laws that tend to infringe upon the state rights and local governments.

Praise for Wilson

"The Democratic party of South Carolina, in convention assembled, reaffirms its allegiance to the principles of Democracy expressed in our state and national platforms. We extend our best wishes and hopes for the renewed vigor, health and happiness of our stricken leader, Woodrow Wilson. We are satisfied that the noble principles for which he fought will yet prevail. It is with great satisfaction that we learn of the increasing love and admiration for him by the American people manifested by pilgrimages to his home. We pledge ourselves to continue the fight until the peace of the world is guaranteed. Also we extend greetings and good wishes to James M. Cox for the valiant and courageous fight he made under adverse circumstances for the Democratic party."
